

Antelope High School Student Bulletin

March 8, 2016

Quote of the day: "Nothing gives one person so much advantage over another as to remain always cool and unruffled under all circumstances."

Thomas Jefferson

DRESS CODE REMINDER:

Antelope students. Our administrative team would like to cordially remind you about a few things that we have been seeing on campus that are against dress code:

Baseball caps that are NOT official Antelope hats are not allowed to be worn on campus.

Any sports jerseys or beanies are not allowed to be worn on campus.

Pants with gaping holes above the knees are not to be worn on campus.

We are going to be proactive in making sure our students are following our dress code expectations. If you need further clarification, please read through the Student Handbook that is posted online. If you have any questions, please see an administrator at the front office. Remember, there is always a reason why expectations are put in place; they are not just random ideas we come up with to make students upset.

SPEECH AND DEBATE

The Titans Speech and Debate program hosted a successful State Qualifying tournament for the local league this past weekend. Jack Yanos and Josh Juarros were each the best in the league in one of their many events. Jayme Jones, Tyler Anderson and Alana Cox were also among the top competitors in their events and are heading on to the State Tournament as well. Danielle Strahl, Kim Weaver, Karam Singh, Breanna Rodgers, and Arham Javid each finished well enough that any of them may receive an invitation to State as well. Combined with the Policy Debate team from last week, Antelope will be well-represented at the State level once again.

An additional special achievement was provided to Tyler and Jack for their four years of involvement in Antelope's Speech program, and because they have each represented the league through numerous appearances on the State and National levels. Furthermore, Jack Yanos made the league's "All Star" team for the second year with ten of the local coaches each wanting to have Jack on their team.

Thanks to our teachers and students for all of their support and encouragement during these past few weeks. The other teams were also quite impressed and appreciative of all that our school has done. Thank you.

For more information, and to hear some of the stories from this past weekend, join us in L201 after school on Tuesday.
